I understand the fees for the initial consult are $1495 for a 1-2 hour appointment including follow-ups for the first month. Initial_____

I understand optimizing brain health takes time and frequent interaction. Rather than charging individually for follow-up visits, phone calls, and emails, Dr. Lewis offers a monthly membership-style program for ongoing care. The first month is covered under the initial consult fee of $1495. Any labs, usually ordered every 2-3 months, are not included and billed in addition to the monthly fee. For the monthly fee, I would like to (check one and initial):

☐ Pay $350 per month for months two through six, billed to my credit card each month.
☐ Pay the fee one time for a 10% discount ($1575 versus $1750), payable by check or credit card.
☐ I choose not participate in this program, understanding that I will be charged for all follow-up visits, phone calls, and emails (requires a credit card on file).
